

SUMMER RESEARCH SYMPOSIUM

Wednesday, August 7, 2024

9:00 am - 5:30 pm

Georgia State University, Student Center Ballroom

Please join us for the 2024 Georgia State University Summer Research Symposium, featuring interactive poster and slide presentations sessions by undergraduate research assistants in these and other programs at Georgia State University:

- Beckman Scholars Program
- Brains & Behavior (B&B)
- Center for Outreach, Research, and Engagement (C.O.R. E.)
- Center for Research Excellence in Science and Technology-Center for Multiscale and Multimodal Brain Mapping Across the Lifespan (DMAP)
- Humanities Inclusivity Program (HIP) & HIP-Summer Immersion
- Louis Stokes Alliances for Minority Participation (LSAMP)
- Math Path
- Maximizing Access to Research Careers (MARC)
- Molecular Basis of Disease (MBD)
- Perimeter Research Assistantship (PRA)

Georgia State University Women's, Gender and Sexuality Studies Professor, Stephanie Evans, Ph.D., will present a keynote address entitled Mental Health and Our Life of the Mind: Lessons from Black Women's Intellectual History.

KEYNOTE SPEAKER

STEPHANIE EVANS, Ph.D.

1-2 pm

EVENT SCHEDULE

- 9:00 am Opening Remarks
 - 9:15 am Poster Session 1
 - 10:15 am Oral Presentations Session 1
 - 12:00 pm Poster Session 2 / Lunch Refreshments
 - 1:00 pm Keynote
 - 2:00 pm Oral Presentations Session 2
 - 3:30 pm Poster Session 3
 - 5:00 pm Awards and Reception
- High school ION program to follow immediately.

RSVP here.